

A stylized, high-contrast black and white illustration. A hand is shown from the bottom right, gripping a thick, dark banner. The banner is divided into three horizontal sections, each containing a word in a bold, sans-serif font. The top section contains the word 'BLACK', the middle section contains 'LIVES', and the bottom section contains 'MATTER'. The hand is rendered with simple, expressive lines, and the banner has a slightly textured, hand-drawn appearance.
